

Katie Beckett Benefit Table

Service	How it can help you	What benefit groups cover it?			Limits
		Katie Beckett Part A	Medicaid Diversion Part B	Continued Eligibility Part C
Medicaid Benefits for Children, Including Early Periodic Screening, Diagnosis, and Treatment Services	All of the physical and behavioral health care Medicaid must cover for children, including doctor visits, hospital care, therapies, nursing, home health care, medical equipment and supplies, and dental, vision, and pharmacy services	✓		✓
Assistance with Premium Payments	Help paying the child’s cost only of private health insurance	✓ Only for hardship	✓
Automated Health Care and Related Expense Reimbursement	A debit card to pay for things the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) says are medical expenses—like doctor, hospital and pharmacy co-pays		✓
Individualized Therapeutic Support Reimbursement	Getting paid back for approved care your child needs for their disability (even though the IRS wouldn’t count it as a medical expense)		✓
Respite	Someone to support your child for a short time so you can have a break. (Only for routine family or other caregivers who aren’t paid to support your child.) You can hire your child’s respite caregivers—called Consumer Direction. Or, you can choose a provider agency to give your child’s respite in your home.	✓	✓		Up to 30 days per calendar year or 216 hours per calendar year (January 1 – December 31 each year). You have to pick one. You can only get hourly respite in Consumer Direction.
Supportive Home Care	Someone to help with your child’s personal care needs or daily living activities in your home or in the community (but not at school). You can hire your child’s caregivers—called Consumer Direction. Or, you can choose a provider agency to give your child’s care in your home.	✓	✓

Katie Beckett Benefit Table

Service	How it can help you	What benefit groups cover it?			Limits
		Katie Beckett Part A	Medicaid Diversion Part B	Continued Eligibility Part C
Assistive Technology, Adaptive Equipment and Supplies	Certain items that help your child do things more independently in your home or community. This includes assessments and training on how to use them.	✓	✓		Up to $5,000 per calendar year (January 1 – December 31 each year)
Minor Home Modifications	Certain changes to your home that will help your child get around easier and safer in your home like grab bars or a wheelchair ramp	✓	✓		Up to $6,000 per project; $10,000 per calendar year; and $20,000 per lifetime
Vehicle Modifications	Certain changes to your vehicle that will help you transport your child easier and safer	✓	✓		Up to $10,000 per calendar year and $20,000 per lifetime
Community Integration Support Services	Helps your child do things in the community that your child wants to do. Take a class, join a club, volunteer, get or stay healthy, do something fun, build relationships, and reach your child's goals	✓	✓		Up to 20 hours per week
Community Transportation	Helps your child get to places in the community if you or someone else can't take them. In Consumer Direction, this can be used to pay someone back for gas, for bus fare, a taxi service, etc. Or, you can choose a provider to help transport your child. (This is not for medical appointments. But for children in Part A and Part C, TennCare covers those too—called Non-Emergency Medical Transportation.)	✓	✓		Up to $225 per month if you to get this service through consumer direction
Decision Making Supports	Help understanding options to protect the rights and freedom of children with disabilities as they become adults, while providing the support they need to make decisions. Can include help paying for legal fees for these options but you have to get the counseling service first.	✓	✓		<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Up to $500 per lifetime</li> <li>• Must get counseling service first</li> </ul>

Katie Beckett Benefit Table

Service	How it can help you	What benefit groups cover it?			Limits
		Katie Beckett Part A	Medicaid Diversion Part B	Continued Eligibility Part C
Family Caregiver Education and Training	Help paying for workshops and training that will help family caregivers understand, support and advocate for your child and help your child advocate for him/herself	✓	✓		Up to $500 per calendar year (January 1 – December 31 each year)
Family-to-Family Support	Guidance and support from another parent of a child with disabilities who has experience and training	✓	✓
Community Support Development, Organization, and Navigation	Helps your child and other with disabilities and their families: - Connect with and help each other, and - Find and use resources in your community	✓	✓
Health Insurance Counseling/Forms Assistance	Training and support to help you understand and use your child's insurance benefits (including TennCare, Medicare and private insurance)	✓	✓		Up to 15 hours per calendar year (January 1 – December 31 each year)