Getting care

Know your options

There are different options to get the care you or your child(ren) need based on the situation.

Your Primary Care Provider (PCP)

Your Primary Care Provider, also called a PCP, is the doctor you see for most care, like checkups, treatments, vaccinations, minor injuries, and other health concerns. Call your or your child(ren)'s PCP first, even after hours.

Important tip: Annual checkups are important for good health. Make an appointment with your or your child(ren)'s PCP if any of you have not had a visit in the past year.

Your PCP can also provide care and screenings covered by the Early and Periodic Screening, Diagnosis, and Treatment (EPSDT) benefit. This benefit is available to pregnant women, and children and young adults 20 years old or younger, and who are members of RMHP's regional organization (Regional Accountable Entity – "RAE 1") or RMHP PRIME plans. With the EPSDT benefit, get access to preventive, dental, mental health, developmental, and specialty services — at no cost.

Urgent care

Urgent care is for non-emergent but serious illness or injuries that need medical care. These can include fevers, flu symptoms, minor cuts, or minor burns.

Emergencies

Go to the Emergency Room if your or your child(ren)'s condition is life-threatening or a doctor states to go. You and your child(ren) should go to the Emergency Room if symptoms of chest pain, trouble breathing, severe allergic reactions or severe bleeding are present.

Behavioral health services

Behavioral health is an important part of overall health. If there any changes in mood or behavior, or if alcohol or drugs are being used, talk to a provider. RMHP can help you or your child(ren) understand behavioral health benefits and find a provider that can help.

Dental care

Dental health can affect an entire body. It's important to take advantage of preventive services. Call DentaQuest at 855-225-1729 to learn more about dental benefits and find a dentist, or visit dentaquest.com and select Members > Colorado > Health First Colorado.
